

FACILITY OVERVIEW, BUILDING 532: HOUSING USE

Building 532 (1540 N. Miller Drive), the oldest building on the base, is situated in the Campbellton Road Mixed Use District in the northwest area of Fort McPherson along Miller Drive, facing north. The two-story, L-shaped, brick building was constructed in 1887 and served as a family quarters. The US Army reports the square footage as approximately 1,762 sq.ft.

BUILDING 532 EXTERIOR

Building 532: Front façade

Building 532: South-east corner

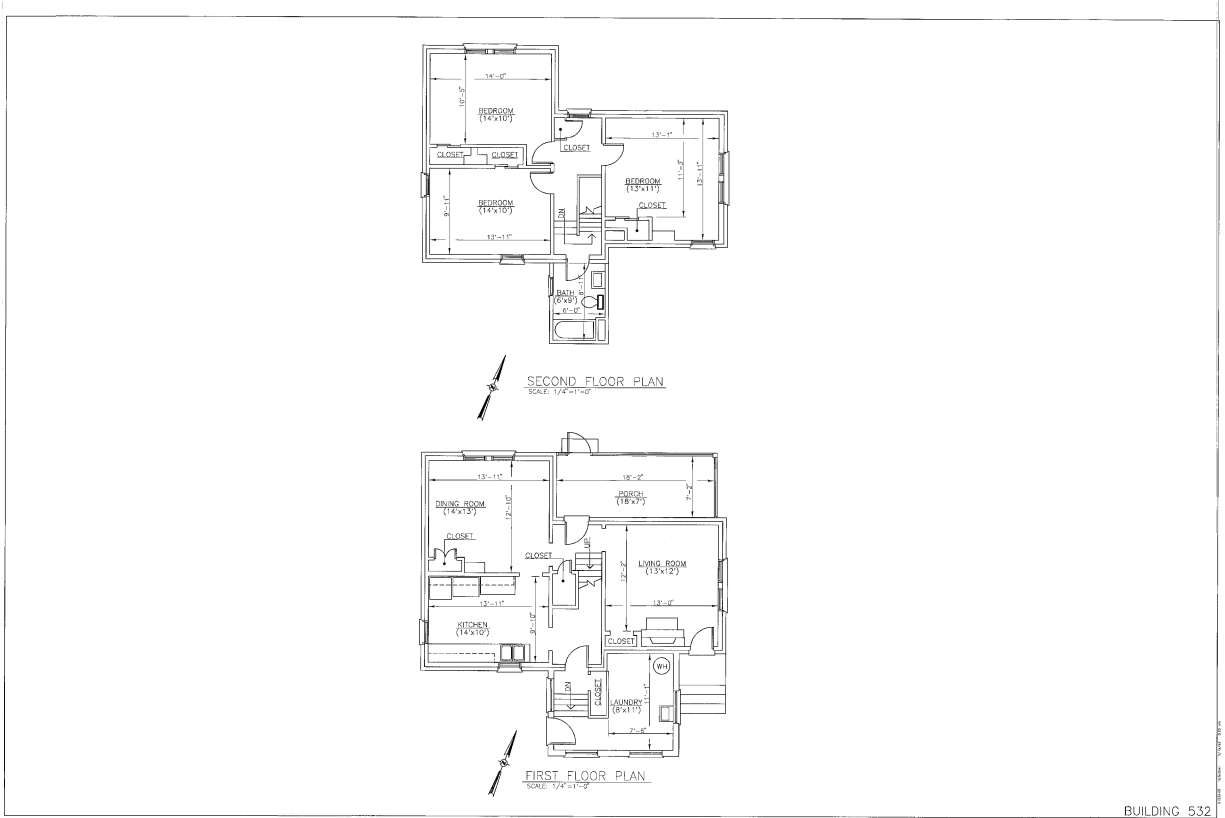

Figure 1: Building 532 1st & 2nd floor plan

Disclaimer: McPherson Implementing Local Redevelopment Authority (Fort Mac LRA) does not guarantee the accuracy of any information describing the property.