

1219 HANEY PLAZA

The Historic Red Cross building is located at 1219 Haney Plaza within the Historic District near the original, gated entrance to Fort McPherson. Constructed in 1919, it was used as a convalescent building for patients from the hospital and later converted to a service club. It is one of the few remaining Red Cross buildings built in the shape of the Maltese cross. The building is approximately 8,450 sq. ft.
